

Public Art Review Panel

A Public Art Review Panel (panel) shall select the artist/team for City of Laguna Beach Public Art Projects as determined by the Arts Commission. The panel, to select the artist/team, will be assembled by staff with the assistance of the Art Commission sub-committee assigned to the project. The panel shall be composed of three to five members including one Arts Commissioner in a non-voting, advisory capacity along with any combination of the following: an Architect, Design Professional, Artist, Curator, Director of an Arts Organization, and a staff member from the Cultural Arts Department.

Opportunities to participate as a member of the prequalified pool shall be made available on an ongoing basis through an application and training process. The Arts Commission may propose candidates to be appointed as participants in the panel pool based on the candidate's special experience and/or unique qualifications.

Panelists shall receive an honorarium based on available funds and complexity of the project. No gallery owner, dealer or art agent may serve as a panelist due to the potential conflict of interest. No panelist may serve more than once in a two-year period. Each panelist shall have one vote, with no panelist possessing the right to veto. No panelist can vote by proxy or be in absentia.

Panelist Criteria for Artist/Team Selection

- Artistic excellence, innovation and originality as evidenced by representations of past work and other supporting material.
- Appropriateness of the artist's work to the goal of the project.
- Professional experience is adequate to meet the demands of the project.
- Availability to participate in the design, approval and implementation of the project.
- Assessed ability to meet project deadlines and to perform work in a timely and professional manner.
- Results of reference checks if selected as a finalist.
- Artist teams must demonstrate previous collaborations.
- The selected art work must have been created by the artist.
