Number of positions that will be open and details for the following Committees (the City Council may reduce or increase the number of positions at its discretion):

- (3) two-year terms on the Planning Commission with terms beginning July 1, 2026. The Planning Commission is a five-member body appointed by the City Council for the purpose of reviewing and advising the Council on items related to the development and modification of land uses within the City limits. As such, the Commission reviews and recommends action on the development and amendment of the general plan, zoning ordinances, subdivision regulations and special projects related to land use planning. Planning Commissioners generally serve a two-year term and are compensated in the amount of $392.00 per month. The regular meetings of the Commission are held on the first and third Wednesdays of each month at 6:00 p.m. Study sessions may be held as part of the regular meeting or at other specified times. A substantial time commitment averaging 4 to 6 hours a week is necessary to be a Planning Commissioner. Meetings may be four or more hours long and require a great deal of preparation time. In addition to these regular meetings, Commissioners are expected to visit sites and review project proposals prior to the meeting, as well as attend special project workshops. It is desirable to have or be able to acquire certain skills or aptitudes, such as the ability to understand zoning regulations and their effect on allowed land uses. Experience in land use planning, architecture, engineering and/or real estate would be an asset.

- (4 + Alternate) two-year terms on the Arts Commission with terms beginning July 1, 2026. The Arts Commission is a seven-member commission with one alternate, appointed by the City Council. Four of the seven members must be actively participating in the arts. The Commissioners are compensated in the amount of $137.00 per month. The Arts Commission has the power and duty to act in an advisory capacity to the City Council in all matters pertaining to the artistic aspects of the City. Additionally, commissioners recommend to the City Council the adoption of such ordinances, rules and regulations as they may deem necessary for the administration and preservation of the fine/performing arts of the community. Major projects of the Commission are implementation of the City's Cultural Arts Plan and establishment of the Public Art Ordinance and Policy. Commission meetings are generally held on the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 5:00 p.m. Meeting and preparation time may exceed several hours per week.
- (3) two-year terms on the Emergency/Disaster Preparedness Committee with terms beginning July 1, 2026. The Emergency/Disaster Preparedness Committee is a seven-member body whose charge is to advise the City Council on all matters pertaining to disaster prevention, planning, and preparedness, by making recommendations to the City Council. Meetings are generally held on the first Monday of the month at 6:00 p.m.
- (4) two-year terms on the Housing and Human Services Committee with terms beginning July 1, 2026. The Housing and Human Services Committee is a seven-member body, whose charge is affordable housing, seniors, youths, and the homeless, including affordable housing for city employees and artists and educating the community on existing services such as homeless cold weather shelters. Meetings are generally held on the fourth Wednesday of the month at 6:00 p.m.
- (1) two-year term on the Parking, Traffic & Circulation Committee with term effective immediately, through March 31, 2028. The Parking, Traffic & Circulation Committee is a seven-member body that acts in an advisory capacity on matters pertaining to parking, traffic, circulation, and traffic complaints. Meetings are generally held on the fourth Thursday of the month at 6:00 p.m.
- (2) two-year terms on the View Restoration Committee with term effective immediately, through March 31, 2028. Members of the View Restoration Committee adjudicate view claims submitted by property owners to restore pre-existing views that are alleged to be significantly impaired by vegetation. The five-member committee conducts public hearings to review claims, hear testimony, and determine significant view impairment. The Committee may approve a view restoration order and establish a maintenance schedule for the subject vegetation on the property. The View Restoration Committee generally meets on the second Wednesday of each month at 5:00 p.m.
